SANTA CLAUS.

Author of words unknown. Music by Mrs. CROSBY ADAMS.

Merrily.
1. There's a jol - ly old fel - low with hair so white, And
2. His cheeks are as ro - sy as red cher-ries ripe, His lit - tle bright eyes so blue; He'll be pay-ing a vis - it on nose is as red as can be; You may get now and then a Christ-mas night, And per-haps he may call up - on you; A smell of his pipe, But his face you may nev - er see. He Copied by permission from "The Very First Melody Studies," by Mrs. Crosby Adams. Clayton F. Summy, Publisher.

Santa Claus—Concluded.

fun - ny old name has this fun - ny old man, You may car - ries a bag full of sweet-meats and toys, And guess what it is with-out doubt, For he creeps down the chimney as leaves them wherever he goes For good lit - tle girls and fast as he can, And then just as quick - ly creeps out.
kind lit - tle boys, So hang up your lit - tle black hose.
Accel.
A tempo.